IND vs ENG Key Player Battles to Watch

KL Rahul vs Brydon Carse

KL Rahul, one of India's most dependable batters, showed great intent in the first Test and will look to anchor the innings again. Facing him will be Brydon Carse, who impressed with his discipline and swing in the series opener. This battle could set the tone for India's innings.

Rishabh Pant vs Ben Stokes

India's vice-captain Rishabh Pant was phenomenal at Headingley, smashing centuries in both innings. In Birmingham, he'll once again face the challenge of England's skipper Ben Stokes, who matched Pant's intensity with clever bowling changes and field setups. Expect another thrilling duel between the two leaders.

Joe Root vs Mohammed Siraj

Veteran Joe Root played a key role in England's win with a classy half-century. Meanwhile, Mohammed Siraj looked sharp but lacked breakthroughs. With Jasprit Bumrah possibly being rested, Siraj will need to step up and lead the Indian pace attack to stop Root's dominance.

Harry Brook vs Prasidh Krishna

Harry Brook narrowly missed out on a century in the first Test, scoring a gritty 99. The in-form batter will now look to convert his start into a ton. Prasidh Krishna, though expensive last time, did get breakthroughs. This contest between Brook's aggressive stroke play and Krishna's bounce could be crucial.
